- (iv) an employee who is performing the duties of securing, watching, guarding and/or protecting as directed, including responses to alarm signals and attendances at and minor non-technical servicing of automatic teller machines and is required to patrol in a vehicle two or more separate establishments or sites;
 - (v) an employee who monitors and acts upon electronic intrusion detection or access control equipment terminating in a visual display unit or computerised printout except for simple closed circuit television systems and may be required to perform the duties of a Security Officer Grade 1.
- b. MOBILE SECURITY OFFICER (Grade 3): means a person who in addition to performing the duties of Grade 2 as defined in paragraph (b) of sub-clause (ii), monitors and acts upon intelligent building management systems terminating at a visual display unit or computerised printout that has the capacity for and requires data input from the Security Officer.
- c. SUPERVISOR: an employee in charge of other employees and who is responsible for their supervision, punctuality, performance of duties and presentation.
- d. CASUAL EMPLOYEE: an employee engaged as such but shall not include an employee working 40 ordinary hours or more per week.
- e. WEEKLY EMPLOYEE: an employee engaged and paid by the week or fortnight as the case may be.

6.2 RATES OF PAY-ORDINARY HOURS (40 Hours per week)

The minimum weekly rate of pay for each classification shall be such that no employee will receive less in weekly aggregate than that provided in the Award for the rosters worked. The annual yearly salary in aggregate paid under this Agreement shall not be less than that paid under the Security Industry (State) Award.

CLASSIFICATION	HOURLY
Static Security Officer (Grade 1) (Weekly)	$11.50
Static Security Officer (Grade 1) (Casual)	$13.00
Supervisor	$13.00
Mobile Security Officer (Grade 2/3)	$11.50

6.3 OVERTIME: An employee who voluntarily works hours in excess of 38 hours will be paid at the appropriate ordinary rate under this agreement. An employee directed to work overtime will be paid at the appropriate hourly rate plus penalties, set by the Security Industry State Award.

6.4 WAGE INCREASES DURING THE TERM OF THIS AGREEMENT

The ordinary hourly rate of pay for all classifications will be increased on 1st of March and the 1st of September each year by the CPI for the proceeding six (6) months. Such variation shall be in accordance with Section 125 of the Industrial Relations Act (NSW) 1991.

7. PAYMENT OF WAGES

Wages shall be paid no more than 48 hours from the time when such wages become due and shall be paid not later than Thursday in the week. The Company shall specify the day upon which wages shall be paid into a bank or other account specified by the employee.

8. CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

8.1 Employees under this Enterprise Agreement shall be engaged either as weekly or casual employees.

8.2 The Company shall provide all employees with a copy of this Enterprise Agreement and new employees will sign an acknowledgment of such on commencement of employment with the Company.

8.3 The employment of any weekly employee shall be terminated only by one week's notice or by payment or forfeiture, as the case may be, of one week's wages in lieu thereof.

8.4 Casual employees shall be terminated only by one hour's notice or payment of one hour's pay.

8.5 Probationary Period: Employees engaged as weekly or employees without previous service with the Company may be engaged for a probationary period of four (4) weeks. During this period such employees may be terminated with one hour's notice notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 8.3.

8.6 Notwithstanding the above provisions, the Company may dismiss an employee at any time for misconduct or wilful disobedience. In such circumstances the Company shall be liable for payment of wages up to the time of dismissal only.

8.7 All employees are responsible for ensuring that they hold the current licences for employment in the Security Industry as required by Law.

8.8 All employees are responsible for the maintenance and cleanliness of uniforms and equipment issued to them and ensuring that all equipment is returned to the Company in the same condition it was issued;

- (i) Where items of uniform or equipment are destroyed or damaged through no fault of the employee in the course of his/her duties such items will be replaced by the Company on a one for one basis.

8.9 On termination of employment an employee shall return to the employer all uniforms, identity cards, vehicles, firearms, keys and all other items issued to employees.

9. ANNUAL LEAVE

The Annual Holidays Act 1944 shall apply to all weekly employees.

10. SICK LEAVE

Employees are entitled to one (1) week on full pay for each year of service.

10.1 An employee who is unable to attend for duty during ordinary hours of work by reason of personal illness or incapacity shall be entitled to be paid at the ordinary rates of pay for the time of such non-attendance subject to the following conditions and limitations:-

- a. The employee shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence for any period in respect of which there is entitlement to payment under the Workers Compensation Act;
- b. The employee shall where ever practicable, three hours before the commencement of the shift, or in any case, within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence, inform the employer of the employee's inability to attend for duty;
- c. The employee shall furnish to the Company such evidence as the employer may desire that the employee was unable by reason of illness or injury, to attend for duty;
- d. During the first year of employment, an employee shall be entitled to five days sick leave;
- e. During the second and each subsequent year, an employee shall be entitled to ten days sick leave.

10.2 Accumulative Sick Leave: The rights under this Clause shall accumulate from year to year so that any part of the sick leave entitlements which have not taken may be claimed by the employee in any subsequent year of employment. The maximum amount of sick leave that may be accumulated is 30 days.

11. ORDINARY HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT

Ordinary hours of employment shall not exceed 40 hours per week averaged over a four (4) week period.

12. GRIEVANCES AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

12.1 In an effort to promote good industrial relations between employees and the Company and to achieve the satisfactory resolution of industrial disputes without loss of wages or production, the following procedure will be adhered to by all parties:-

- a. An employee who has a grievance should take the matter up with the immediate Supervisor. If they so desire they can have another person of their choice present;
- b. If the employee is dissatisfied with the Supervisor's decision they should ask that the matter be taken by the Supervisor to the Operations Manager and this is to be done as promptly as circumstances permit;
- c. If the employee is dissatisfied with the Operation Manager's decision the employee shall ask that the matter be taken up with the Managing Director as promptly as circumstances permit and that a conference be arranged;
- d. In all these steps the employee with the grievance is entitled to have a representative of their choice present at any conference whatsoever;
- e. While these procedures are being followed promptly and the status quo remains, work shall continue normally without bans or limitations;
- f. If the final decision fails to resolve the issue, the matter shall be referred to the Industrial Commission of New South Wales.

12.2 Nothing in this procedure limits any of the parties rights that apply under the Industrial Relations Act 1991.
