15.0 USE OF CONTRACTORS AND CASUALS

It is agreed between the parties that prior to the use of contractors/casuals being used, consultation will take place with the delegates and/or employees and will cover the nature of the job, expected duration, expected number of casuals/contractors to be on site and when the job is needed. 17.0 EMPLOYEE COUNSELLING AND CORRECTIVE GUIDANCE

Preamble

The procedure is designed to encourage and improve good work practices, performance and individual conduct. The procedure will also prescribe steps for giving guidance and, in appropriate cases, taking disciplinary action.

Objectives

- (a) To encourage and improve good work practices, performances and individual conduct.
- (b) To ensure that all matters relating to employee and management conduct are investigated properly, considered reasonably and are dealt with promptly, fairly and consistently.
- (c) To ensure that every consideration has been given to correcting unsatisfactory performance or conduct.
- (d) To ensure that, other than in cases of serious misconduct, severe disciplinary action is taken only as a last resort, following appropriate counselling and after formal warnings have been given.

Responsibilities

- (a) This procedure is to be observed by Foremen, Supervisors and Managers at all levels. It is management's responsibility to make available and known to all employees as appropriate, the standard terms and conditions of their employment, and all rules and regulations relating to their work. Employees for their part are required to familiarise themselves with these documents and to comply with the prescribed Company rules and statutory regulations.
- (b) Infringement of rules will be dealt with on an individual basis, and where appropriate, mitigating circumstances will be taken into account.

Administration of Procedure

- (a) Apart from offences or misconduct incurring summary dismissal, (see Section 4) unsatisfactory attendance, work performance of a less serious nature should be dealt with in accordance with the following steps:-

Step 1 - Counselling (in Work Practices)

The immediate Supervisor, accompanied by the Manager should:

- (i) Discuss the problem with the employee and the Delegate.

- (ii) Advise the employee of the standards of performance, attendance or conduct, etc expected.
- (iii) Agree on specific action to be taken and set a date for review.

Should the same situation or problem recur within the 2 month period set for review, the procedure set out in step 2 below should then be followed:

Note: An agreed record of counselling between Management and the Delegate will be made of the record of interview with a copy retained by the Supervisor/Profit Centre Manager/Area Manager, Delegate and a copy to the employee's history file. The agreement signifies that what was said was actually written down and that the procedure was correctly applied.

(b) Step 2 - Follow up Counselling

- (i) Review previous situation.
- (ii) Indicate insufficient response to previous counselling and discuss reasons why.
- (iii) Indicate to the employee the consequences of continued lack of improvement.
- (iv) Discuss possible solutions to the problem.
- (v) Wherever possible, agree on action to be taken and set further date for review. Should the same situation again recur within a 3 month period set for this review the procedure in step 3 should be followed.
- (vi) A Union Delegate must be present at this step.

(c) Step 3 - Reprimand

If counselling is not successful the Supervisor should reprimand the employee. In so doing, he/she should:

- (i) Restate the offence.
 - (ii) Restate the agreed corrective action.
 - (iii) Indicate to the employee the action now being taken, i.e. a written reprimand will now be administered.
 - (iv) Warn the employee that further repetition of the offence or failure to improve may result in a severe reprimand and final warning.

- (v) Record the reprimand on the Record of Interview sheet with a copy of the 'Record of Interview' to be given to the employee and the Delegate. This is to be an agreed record in accordance with the note contained in step 1 of this Procedure. Should there be further recurrence of the offence or conduct within the 4 month period set for review under this step, step 4 of this procedure should be followed.

Wherever it is necessary to administer a reprimand, the Supervisor/Profit Centre Manager/Area Manager concerned shall be accompanied by the Supervisor or Profit Centre Manager/Area Manager. If the employee concerned is a member of a union, arrangements shall be made to secure the attendance of the Union Delegate.

(d) Step 4 - Severe Reprimand and Final Warning

If the offence or conduct is repeated or continues, a severe reprimand and final warning will be necessary. Once again, the offence, or unsatisfactory conduct should be restated and the employee warned that failure to improve within a 6 month period will result in dismissal. Final warnings should be recorded as in step 3 (v) above. A Union Delegate will be present at this step.

(e) Step 5 - Dismissal

If counselling, reprimand and severe reprimand and the final warning have proved to be ineffective, there is no alternative but to dismiss the employee.

If the dismissal becomes necessary, the action should directly involve the Profit Centre Manager, the Area Manager and the Industrial Relations Manager shall be fully informed, and the following procedure will be observed:

- (f) Prior to actually dismissing any employee in these circumstances, the employee should initially be stood down on pay, whilst the matters giving rise to the possible dismissal are reviewed between the Profit Centre Manager and the Area Manager. In this review the Area Manager will satisfy himself/herself that all steps in the procedure have been faithfully followed and that the employee has absolutely failed to respond to earlier counselling and formal reprimands, and that dismissal is not only justifiable but also is necessary.
- (g) Having decided on dismissal, the employee should be invited into the privacy of an office and if a member of a Union, the attendance of the Union Delegate must be arranged.

- (h) Restate the offence or problem giving rise to the dismissal and restate the corrective action which was previously agreed upon.
- (i) Advise the employee that as he/she has failed to comply with previously agreed corrective action, dismissal has resulted as a consequence.
- (j) All terminations are to be enacted by the Profit Centre Manager, in combination with the Area Manager.
- (k) Submit the usual termination advice to the Paymaster stating the reason for dismissal.

Expiry of Probationary Periods

Should an employee respond satisfactorily to corrective guidance counselling, reprimands or final warning, and continue to display satisfactory conduct or performance over the period specified on the latest record of interview, this history will be disregarded so far as further discipline is concerned. If, after the lapse of time specified, the employee subsequently offends again, the procedure should be repeated from the first step, except where the offence is the same as a previous one in which case the procedure should commence at Step 3.

Summary Dismissal

- (a) If an employee is guilty of conduct or behaviour which warrants summary dismissal the Company shall not be required to either give notice or to make a payment in lieu thereof.

Without limiting the Company's rights in this regard, examples of an act or behaviour which warrants summary dismissal may be the commission of a criminal act against the Company, its employees, contractors or clients, refusal of duty or malingering, serious or wilful misconduct, conduct which places a contract in jeopardy, serious and wilful breaches of the Company's safety policy and/or the provisions of the Occupational Health and Safety legislation, fighting, the taking of alcohol or a prohibited substance while on duty, vandalism or theft.

- (b) If an employee becomes subject to the provisions of this clause, he/she is to be suspended on pay immediately. Upon suspension occurring, the Supervisor, Profit Centre Manager shall immediately contact the Area Manager who will conduct an inquiry with the Union Delegate. The Industrial Relations Manager will be informed of the situation. If the conduct or behaviour is confirmed to the Area Manager's satisfaction, then the employee shall be terminated forthwith. However, if the matter is not resolved, it shall be referred back to the Disputes Settling Procedure. Payment will continue for no more than one week. At all times, facts will be used as the basis for settling the matter.

18.0 NOT TO BE USED AS A PRECEDENT

This Agreement shall not be used in any manner whatsoever to obtain similar arrangements or benefits in any other plant or enterprise.

19.0 NO EXTRA CLAIMS

The parties to the Agreement will not make claims for improvements in wages and conditions except where consistent with the processes identified in this Agreement.

Any wage adjustments defined in accordance with future National or State Wage Decisions which may be convened during the life of this Agreement will be absorbed into any increases paid or allowable under this Agreement.

20.0 RATES OF PAY

All employees covered by this Agreement will receive a 4½% increase on their current weekly rate of pay.

Subject to agreement of both parties on all aspects of this document, then the Agreement will commence on the 1 January 1994.

The new applicable rates are given in Appendix 1.

21.0 DURESS

This Agreement was not entered into under duress by any party to it.
