- (i) Proof of Age - Upon the engagement of an employee, such employee, if required to do so, must furnish a birth certificate. When an employee cannot prove his or her age in the ordinary way, a passport, military or naval discharge or Consular document shall be proof of age.
- (ii) Time and Payment of Wages - All wages shall be paid weekly in arrears, via electronic funds transfer, on a day not later than Thursday of each week.

Where employment is terminated an employee shall be paid forthwith all ordinary wages due and shall be paid all overtime and other monies due within seven days of the date of the termination of employment.

(iii) Termination of Employment -

- (a) In the case of misconduct justifying instant dismissal an employee may be instantly dismissed.
- (b) In all other cases employment may be terminated by either party:
  - (1) During the first month of employment by a moment's notice;
  - (2) Thereafter, by one week's notice or by the payment or forfeiture of one week's pay.
- (c) Termination Immediately Prior to Holiday - Subject to subclause (i) of Clause 13, Holidays, an employee after more than two weeks employment whose employment is terminated by the employer on the business day preceding a holiday or holidays, other than for misconduct, shall be paid for such holiday or holidays.
- (d) Termination Prior to Christmas - Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof an employee engaged on or after 1 December in any year whose employment finishes before Christmas Day and who is not re-employed within four weeks of Christmas Day by the same employer is not entitled to payment for the Christmas holidays.
- (e) Certificate of Service - An employee who has been employed for not less than one month, on leaving or being discharged shall, upon request, be entitled to a statement in writing containing the date when the employment began and the date of termination. The statement shall be the property of the employee and shall be returned unnoted by any subsequent employer, within seven days of the engagement.
- (f) An employee other than a cleaner shall not be required to clean lavatories.

3. APPRENTICESHIP

- (a) After a probationary period of three months, an employer shall employ a junior in retail butchering only as an apprentice or for the purpose of apprenticing the junior to the trade of butchering. Such probationary period, if the junior is apprenticed, shall count as part of the apprenticeship.
- (b) Every contract of apprenticeship hereinafter made shall be in the terms of either the Industrial and Commercial Training Act 1989 or the Vocational Training Act 1989.

4. NO EXTRA CLAIMS

It is a term in of this agreement that the union undertakes, for the duration of this agreement, not to pursue any extra claims. Both parties recognise that the wages as expressed incorporate payments due under the Minimum Rates adjustment principle.

5. FLEXIBILITY OF WORK

An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within limits of the employee's skill competence and training.

Employees shall take all reasonable steps to achieve quality, accuracy and completion of any job or task assigned to the employee.

Employees shall not impose any restriction or limitations on a reasonable review of work methods or standard work times. All reviews carried out by the employer will take into account the potential impact on Occupational Health and Safety.

6. HOURS - SUPERMARKETS

- (i) The ordinary hours of work of employees shall not exceed an average of thirty-eight hours per week averaged over a maximum of 4 weeks, Monday to Sunday, save for the meal times prescribed, all time between the actual commencing time and the actual ceasing time shall count and shall be paid for as time worked.

  - (b) The days of the week on which such work is to be performed; and
  - (c) The commencing and ceasing times of such hours of work for each day of the week on which work is to be performed.

The above (a), (b) and (c) shall not be changed except:

- Upon not less than seven days notice or
- By agreement between the employee and the employer.

In the event of an emergency, (b) and (c) above may be changed without notice; the quantum of hours may be increased but not decreased.

- (v) Notwithstanding (iv) above where a weekly employee is requested to work:
  - Before the employee's rostered commencing time on any day;
  - After the employee's rostered ceasing time on any day;
  - On a day in substitution for another work day;

And for which 7 days notice has not been given, then such extra/other hours of work shall be paid for at overtime rates, unless the employee has expressly agreed to work those extra/other hours as part of a roster change and be paid at ordinary rates of pay.

Provided that where it is alleged by the Union that a change in rosters is contrary to the wishes of the majority of employees or operated unfairly or to the disadvantage of employees, the employer shall give in lieu of seven days notice, 14 days notice, during which time there shall be discussion and where practicable agreement reached with the Union.

Where an employee's roster is changed for a once only event and the roster reverts back to the previous pattern the following week, the work shall be paid at overtime rates, except where the change is by mutual agreement.

- (vi) All weekly employees shall be rostered their ordinary hours of work on any five days of the week, Monday to Sunday inclusive, on the following basis:
  - (a) A full-time employee on a cycle of 19 working days in four weeks with at least once every two weeks an employee shall be granted two consecutive days off (not including the 19 day month RDO). Provided that by mutual agreement some other roster arrangement may be worked not exceeding 20 days in a four week cycle.

Provided that once every four weeks, an employee who works ordinary hours on a Sunday shall upon request be given three consecutive days off (not including the 19 day month RDO) which shall include Saturday and Sunday. By mutual agreement alternative arrangements may apply.
  - (b) The minimum number of ordinary hours which may be worked on any one day shall be 3 hours. The maximum number of ordinary hours which may be worked on any one day shall be 10 hours.
  - (c) There shall not be more than one long day in any week. A long day is defined as a day exceeding nine ordinary hours of work. Provided that by mutual agreement additional long days may apply.
  - (d) Provided that ordinary hours may be worked on 6 days in one week if in the following week ordinary hours are worked on not more than 4 days.
- (vii) There shall not be less than a 10 hour break between finishing work (including overtime) on one day or shift and the commencement of work on the next day or shift.
- (viii) The employer shall exhibit the current starting and finishing times for each employee for each day of the week. The employer shall retain superseded notices for 12 months.

10. OVERTIME

- (i) An employee shall be paid overtime for all work as follows:
- (a) In excess of:
- (A) 38 hours per week, or
- (B) An average of 38 hours per week
- (C) 5 days per week (or 6 days or 4 days)
- (D) In excess of 9 hours on any one day. Provided that on one day per week up to ten hours be worked without the payment of overtime. By mutual agreement additional days of up to ten ordinary hours may be worked without the payment of overtime.
- (E) 32 hours per week for a part-time employee
- (b) Before an employee's rostered commencing time on any one day.

- (c) After the employee's rostered ceasing time on any one day.
- (ii) The rate of overtime shall be time and one-half for the first two hours on any one day and at the rate of double time thereafter. All overtime worked on a Sunday shall be paid at the rate of double time with a minimum payment for three hours.
- (iii) By mutual agreement the rate for overtime may be time off in lieu of overtime provided that:
  - (a) Time off shall be calculated at the penalty equivalent.
  - (b) The employee is entitled to a fresh choice of payment or time off on each occasion overtime is worked.
  - (c) Time off must be taken within one calendar month of the working of the overtime, or it shall be paid out.
- (iv) Employees who work overtime on their day off shall be paid the normal overtime rate for a minimum of three hours.

11. MIXED FUNCTIONS

An employee appointed by the employer to perform work for which a higher rate than the employee's ordinary rate is prescribed by this agreement shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked, and if so engaged for more than four hours shall be paid the higher rate for the whole of the day.

12. MEAL BREAKS AND REST PAUSES

- (i) A rest pause shall be counted and paid for as time worked. No rest pause shall be given or taken within one hour of the employee's commencing or ceasing time or within one hour before or after any meal or crib break.
- (ii) Meal breaks are not counted and not paid for as time worked.
- (iii) When and where it can be arranged conveniently by the employer each employee who works more than four hours on any day shall be allowed a rest pause of 10 minutes.
- (iv) An employee who works more than five ordinary hours on any day must be allowed both a rest pause of ten minutes and a meal break of 45 minutes, provided that by agreement a meal break of 30 minutes may apply, duration and timing of which will be decided by the employer having regard to the needs of the business. No employee shall work more than five consecutive hours without a meal break.
- (v) The rest pause shall be taken during the longest unbroken part of such shift where one meal break is taken on a day. When nine or more hours are worked, the employee may have either two rest pauses and one meal break or two meal breaks and one rest pause.

13. MEAL ALLOWANCES

An employee required to work overtime, without the employee being notified the day prior of the requirement to work overtime and thereby becomes entitled to a second meal break, shall be paid a meal allowance of $7.20.

14. HOLIDAYS

- (i) A weekly employee shall be entitled to the following holidays with the number of ordinary working hours that the employee would have worked had the day not been a holiday:

New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Picnic Day, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

Provided that any employee whose roster is changed with the intent of avoiding or reducing payment due or the benefit applicable under this clause and who would, but for the change of roster, have been entitled otherwise to a payment or benefit for a Public Holiday or Holidays shall be paid for such Holiday or Holidays as if the roster had not been changed.

- (ii) Picnic Day is the first Tuesday in November of each year.
- (iii) An employee absent without leave on the day before or the day after any holiday shall be liable to forfeit wages for the day of absence as well as for the holiday except where an employer is satisfied that the employee's absence was caused through illness in which case wages shall not be forfeited for the holiday. Provided that an employee absent on one day only either before or after a group of holidays, shall forfeit wages only for one holiday as well as for the period of absence.
- (iv) Work done on any of the holidays prescribed in subclause (i) hereof shall be paid for at the rate of double time and one half with a minimum payment of three hours.
- (v) Provided that where an employee is rostered so that the employee does not work ordinary hours on the same days each week and the employee's rostered day off falls on a day prescribed as a holiday in this sub-clause the employee shall be paid by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee in one of the following methods:
- a) Payment of an additional day's wage;
  - b) Addition of one day to the employee's annual holidays;
  - c) Another day may be allowed off with pay to the employee within twenty-eight days after the holiday falls, or during the week prior to the holiday.

- (vi) Where an employee volunteers to work on the picnic day, such employee shall then be given another day off without loss of pay. Such alternate day shall be given and taken not later than 28 days after the nominated day on a day mutually agreed between the employer and the employee. Provided that in no circumstances shall an employee forfeit their entitlement to the additional holiday and should such extenuating circumstances arise where the day is not taken as prescribed above it must be given and taken on a day without loss of pay added to the employee's next period of annual leave.

Provided further that where an employee's employment terminates prior to the taking of such alternate day, the employee shall receive an additional day's pay on termination.

15. SICK LEAVE

- (i) A weekly employee who, subject to subclause (ii) of this clause, is unable to attend for duty during the employee's ordinary working hours by reason of personal illness or personal incapacity not due to the employee's own serious and wilful misconduct, shall be entitled to be paid at ordinary time rates of pay for the time of such non attendance subject to the following:
- (a) An employee shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence for any period in respect of which he is entitled to workers' compensation.
  - (b) An employee shall not be entitled during the first year of service to sick pay for more than 38 hours (one week) and during the second or subsequent years of service to sick pay for more than 61 hours. Any period of paid sick leave allowed by the employer to an employee in any year of service shall be deducted from the period of sick leave which may be allowed or may be carried forward under this agreement in or in respect of such year;
  - (c) The rights under this clause shall accumulate from year to year so long as the employment continues with the employer provided that in any year an employee shall not be entitled to take more than 380 hours accumulated sick leave.
- (ii) The payment for any absence on sick leave in accordance with this clause during the first three month of employment of an employee may be withheld by the employer until the employee completes such three months of employment at which time the payments shall be made.
- (iii) The granting of sick leave shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:
- (a) The employee shall, inform the employer where practicable of the inability to attend for duty, prior to the commencement of the shift and, as far as possible, state the nature of the illness or injury and the estimated duration of the absence.

- (b) The employee shall furnish to the employer such evidence as the employer reasonably may desire that the employee was unable by reason of such illness or injury to attend for duty on the day or days for which sick leave is claimed.
- (c) For the purposes of this clause as it relates to weekly employees "day" shall mean the number of hours the employee would have worked on the day on which the employee was absent, had the employee not been sick.
- (iv) For the purpose of this clause continuous service shall be deemed not to have been broken by:
  - (a) Any absence from work on leave granted by the employer, or
  - (b) Any absence from work by reason of personal illness, injury or other reasonable cause, proof whereof shall, in each case, be upon the employee.

16. COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

An employee shall on the death of a wife, husband, father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, parent-in-law, grandparent, child, stepchild or grandchild, brother or sister, be entitled on notice to leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such relative and such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in three ordinary days work. Proof of such death shall be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer, together with proof of attendance in the case of a funeral outside Australia.

Where the death of a named relative herein occurs outside Australia and the employee does not attend the funeral the employee shall be entitled to one day only, unless the employee can demonstrate to the employer that additional time up to a period of three days is justified. Provided however, that this clause shall have no operation while the period of entitlement to leave under it coincides with any other period of entitlement to leave. For the purposes of this clause the words "wife" or "husband" shall not include a "wife" or "husband" from whom the employee is separated but shall include a person who lives with the employee as a de facto "wife" or "husband" as the case may be.

17. JURY SERVICE

An employee shall be allowed leave of absence during any period when required to attend for jury service. During such leave of absence, an employee shall be paid the difference between the jury service fees received and the employee's award rate of pay as if working.

An employee shall be required to produce to the employer proof of jury service fees received and proof of requirements to attend and attendance on jury service and shall give the employer notice of such requirements as soon as practicable after receiving notification to attend for jury service.

18. ANNUAL HOLIDAY LOADING

- (i) In this clause the Annual Holidays Act, 1944 is referred to as "the Act".
- (ii) Before an employee is given and takes annual holiday, or, where by agreement between the employer and employee the annual holiday is given and taken in more than one separate period, then before each of such separate periods, the employer shall pay the employee a loading determined in accordance with this clause (NOTE: The obligation to pay in advance does not apply where an employee takes an annual holiday wholly or partly in advance - see subclause (vi)).
- (iii) The loading is payable in addition to the pay for the period of holiday given and taken and due to the employee under the Act.
- (iv) The loading is to be calculated in relation to any period of annual holiday under the Act (but excluding days added to compensate for public or special holidays falling on an employee's rostered day off not worked) where such a holiday is given and taken in separate periods, then in relation to each separate period. (NOTE: See subclause (vi) as to holidays taken wholly or partly in advance).
- (v) The loading is the amount payable for the period or the separate period as the case may be stated in subclause (iv) at the rate per week of 17.5 percent of the appropriate ordinary weekly time rate of pay prescribed by Clause 27, Wages, or the appropriate junior percentage rate of this agreement, for the classification in which the employee was classified when the loading is paid. Such wage shall also include payments under Clause 28, Allowances, where applicable but shall not include other allowances, penalty rates, overtime rates or any other payments prescribed by this agreement.
- (vi) No loading is payable to an employee who takes an annual holiday wholly or partly in advance; provided that, if the employment of such an employee continues until the day when the employee would have become entitled under the Act to an annual holiday, the loading then becomes payable in respect of the period of such holiday and is to be calculated in accordance with subclause (v) of this clause applying the rates of wages payable on that day.
- (vii)
  - (a) When the employment of an employee is terminated by the employer for a cause other than misconduct and at the time of the termination the employee has not been given and has not taken the whole of an annual holiday to which he has become entitled, the employee shall be paid a loading calculated in accordance with subclause (v) for the period not taken.
  - (b) Except as provided by paragraph (a) of this subclause no loading is payable on the termination of an employee's employment.
- (viii) Provided that, if the amount to which the employee would have been entitled by way of night work and/or weekend loadings for the ordinary time (not including time on a public or special holiday) which the employee would have worked during the period of the holiday exceeds the loading calculated in accordance with this clause, then that amount shall be paid to the employee in lieu of the loading.

19. BLOOD DONOR LEAVE

A weekly employee who is absent during ordinary working hours for the purpose of donating blood shall not suffer any deduction of pay up to a maximum of two hours on each occasion and subject to a maximum of four separate absences for the purpose of donating blood each calendar year.

Provided further that such employee shall arrange for the absence to be on a day suitable to the employer and be as close as possible to the beginning or ending of the ordinary working hours.

Proof of the attendance of the employee at a recognised place for the purpose of donating blood, and the duration of such attendance, shall first be furnished to the satisfaction of the employer.

Further the employee shall notify the employer as soon as possible of the time and date upon which the employee is requesting to be absent for the purpose of donating blood.

20. TRAVELLING TIME, EXPENSES & VEHICLE ALLOWANCE

24. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES AND GRIEVANCES

In the first instance any issue in dispute will be discussed and, where possible resolved between the employees and management at the store concerned.

When required, a delegate nominated and approved by the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association and an appropriate Company representative will assist in the resolving of the dispute.

Should an issue remain unresolved, the appropriate Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association official and Company representative will then become involved. This may involve senior Union officials and a management meeting, as required, to seek to resolve any dispute.

If the matter still cannot be resolved, the matter will be referred to the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales.

There is an obligation on the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association to use its best endeavours to ensure that at all times work will continue and that consideration of the needs of the enterprise will remain as a priority.

25. UNION RECOGNITION AND UNION MEMBERSHIP

It is the recommendation of Rainbow Supermarkets that all its employees subject to this agreement join the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association. Accordingly, the Company undertakes to positively promote union membership at the point of recruitment by strongly recommending that all employees join the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association.

All employees shall be given an application form of the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association at the point of recruitment.

Rainbow Supermarkets undertakes upon authorisation to deduct Union membership dues, as levied by the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association in accordance with its rules, from the pay of employees who are members of the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association. Such monies collected will be forwarded to the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association at the end of each accounting period.
