These actions should take place as soon as it is apparent that the earlier discussions will not resolve the grievance/dispute. In addition, in the case of a grievance, if the matter has not been resolved at the conclusion of this stage of discussions, the employer must provide a written response to the grievance, including reasons for not implementing any proposed remedy.
- (e) A matter relating to the conditions of employment fixed by this Agreement may be submitted by one or other of the parties when all other steps, (a) to (d) above, have been exhausted, to the relevant industrial tribunal which may exercise its functions under the Industrial Relations Act, 1991.
- (f) Where the issue in dispute relates to a change of a work or management practice, the pre-existing practice shall be allowed to continue until the issue has been finally resolved.
