FAMILY LEAVE

1 PREAMBLE

The family is "the place where different generations come together and help one another to grow wiser and harmonise the rights of individuals with other demands of social life". (Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World no 52).

With the growing recognition that both society and work have changed, has come the realisation that change is also required in the workplace. Companies and unions in Australia are today moving to implement policies and practices which support the needs of family life. Such changes involve more realistic expectations of those with both family and work responsibilities, a situation which holds potential for considerable stress.

The Catholic Church holds the view that the family constitutes the basis of society. In its statement from the 1981 Synod, The Christian Family in the Modern World (1981), the Church states that family "roles and professions should be harmoniously combined if we wish the evolution of society and culture to be truly and fully human" (no 23). It states further that "society must positively favour and encourage as far as possible responsible initiative by families...(and) ensure that they have all those aids that they need in order to face all their responsibilities in a human way" (no 45).

The United Nations has also acknowledged and drawn attention to the importance of the family by declaring 1994 the International Year of the Family. It urges that "the widest possible protection and assistance should be accorded to families so that they may fully assume their responsibilities within the community". (United Nations Principles for the International Year of the Family).

(a) For the purposes of this clause

(i) "Family" means father, mother, brother, sister, grandparents, father-in-law, mother-in-law, step-father, step-mother, spouse, child, step-child and grandchild and any other such dependent.

(ii) "Pressing domestic necessity" means a reason at the discretion of the employer.

(b) Any full-time, temporary or part-time teacher shall be entitled to be paid family leave in respect of any absence on account of illness or injury to a member of their family or pressing domestic necessity, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

- (i) The period of paid family leave provided to a teacher shall not exceed in any year of service four days. Any further leave is at the discretion of the Principal.
- (ii) A teacher shall not be entitled to be paid family leave unless he or she notifies the Principal (or such other person deputised by the Principal) prior to the commencement of the first organised activity at the School on any day, of the nature of the family leave and of the estimated duration of the absence; provided that paid family leave shall be available if the teacher took all reasonable steps to notify the Principal or was unable to take such steps.
- (iii) Other than in respect of the first one day's absence in respect of family leave in any year a teacher shall, upon request, provide a medical certificate addressed to the School or if the School requires to the School medical officer or a statutory declaration setting out the reason for family leave. Notwithstanding the foregoing the School may require other evidence for the family leave.
- (iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (i) the family leave entitlement of a part-time teacher shall be in that proportion which the number of teaching hours of that teacher in a full school week bears to the number of teaching hours which a full time teacher at the School is normally required to teach.
- (v) Where a teacher is absent on family leave replacements will be arranged in accordance with the School's policy for sick leave replacement.
- (vi) Notwithstanding the above, any family leave taken by a teacher or additional family leave granted by the Principal will be deducted from the teacher's entitlement to sick leave in accordance with clause 10, Sick Leave of the Award. If the teacher has exhausted his/her entitlement to sick leave, paid family leave will not be available.
