6. PAYMENT OF WAGES

- 6.1. Wages will be paid weekly on a day not later than Thursday of each week, for the pay week finishing the previous Sunday.
- 6.2. Payment for all employees shall be via electronic funds transfer to an acceptable financial institution.
- 6.3. Employees shall advise a financial institution and account number at the time of employment and may nominate a second account for a standard deduction.
- 6.4. Government charges associated with the deposit and one withdrawal by electronic funds transfer shall be paid by the Company.
- 6.5. Where employment is terminated an employee shall be paid forthwith all ordinary wages due and shall be paid all overtime and other monies due within seven days of the date of the termination of employment.

7. CASUAL EMPLOYEES

- 7.1. A casual employee may be employed for not less than 4 hours each start and not more than 9 hours at the ordinary hourly rate which is equivalent to one thirty sixth of the ordinary weekly rate plus 15% casual loading.
- 7.2. Casual employees shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the agreement with respect to shift allowances, weekend allowances and public holiday allowances in addition to the 15% casual loading.
- 7.3. In accordance with the NSW Annual Holidays Act 1944, casuals will receive one twelfth of their ordinary hourly rate in lieu of annual leave.

8. PART TIME EMPLOYEES

- 8.1. Part time employees shall be paid an ordinary hourly rate equal to the appropriate ordinary weekly rate divided by 36. The provisions of this agreement with respect to sick leave, bereavement leave, annual leave and holidays shall apply on a pro rata basis.
- 8.2. The provisions of this Agreement with respect to shift allowance, week end allowances, public holiday allowances and overtime shall apply as for full time employees.

9. OVERTIME

- 9.1. Overtime shall mean all time worked before the fixed starting time or after the fixed finishing time, or in excess of an average thirty six hours per week and shall be paid for at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and at the rate of double time thereafter.
- 9.2. Overtime on a Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of double time and a half with a minimum payment of 4 hours, for those workers not working as part of their normal rostered shift.
- 9.3. Overtime on a Saturday will be paid at the rate of time and one half for the first 2 hours and double time thereafter with a minimum payment of 4 hours, for those workers not working as part of their normal rostered shift.
- 9.4. The Company may require employees to work reasonable overtime to meet the needs of the business.
- 9.5. When overtime is worked it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that employees have at least ten consecutive hours off duty between the work of the successive days.
- 9.6. An employee (other than a casual employee) who works so much overtime between the termination of ordinary hours on one day and the commencement of ordinary work on the next day that the employee has not had at least ten consecutive hours off duty between those times, shall be released after completion of such overtime until the employee has had ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.
- 9.7. If on the instructions of the Company such an employee resumes or continues work without having had such ten consecutive hours off duty the employee shall be paid at overtime rates until released from duty for such period.
- 9.8. This sub clause shall not apply in respect to overtime worked on days when the employee is not rostered to work.

10. MEAL AND REST BREAKS

10.1. Meal Break

All employees working in excess of 5 hours shall be allowed a thirty minute period for a meal break. The time shall be fixed by the Company but once having been fixed shall not be altered without seven days notice or by mutual agreement. The meal break will be an unpaid break for day workers and will be a paid break for shift workers.

- 10.2. An employee employed as a maintenance trades person or assistant shall work during meal breaks at ordinary rates of pay whenever instructed to do so for the purpose of making good breakdown of plant or routine maintenance of plant which can only be done whilst such plant is idle.
- 10.3. Five minutes wash up time is permitted at the end of each shift and prior to meal breaks.

10.4. Rest Breaks

Employees shall continue to take rest breaks in accordance with the practice existing in each of the warehouses as at 25 May 1995 provided that any employee working a 9 hour shift shall receive no less than 2 rest breaks.

- 10.5. An employee working overtime shall be allowed a paid meal break of 20 minutes after each 5 hours of overtime worked.
- 10.6. Should overtime continue in excess of 5 hours a paid meal break of 20 minutes shall be allowed for each subsequent completed 5 hours worked the said 5 hours to be calculated from the time of each recommencement of work.
- 10.7. An employee required to work 8 hours or more overtime on a rostered day off or a non rostered public holiday may be allowed the usual week day meal break and in that case, the provisions of sub clause 10.5 and 10.6 do not apply.
- 10.8. Provided that the Company and employees may mutually agree to any variation of this clause to meet the circumstances of the work in hand.

11. MEAL ALLOWANCE

- 11.1. An employee required to work overtime beyond 1 hour shall be paid a meal allowance of $7.24 as at the date of the agreement. This meal allowance shall be paid by EFT included in the payment of weekly wages, as an after tax payment. This allowance will be indexed with future wage increases.
- 11.2. Should an employee undertake to work overtime nominated by the Company then fail to work the full period of overtime they shall forfeit the right to payment for the meal allowance.

12. HOLIDAYS

- 12.1. All statutory or gazetted public holidays observed generally throughout the State of New South Wales being New Year's Day, Australia Day, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Eight Hour Day, Boxing Day and agreed Picnic Day being Easter Tuesday, shall be worked if they form part of an employee's normal working roster.

- 12.2. The statutory or gazetted public holidays Christmas Day and Good Friday, will be observed as public holidays.
- 12.3. If employees are rostered to work on a public holiday, 7 days notice will be provided if the Company does not require the employee to work. Notwithstanding the giving of such notice, employees rostered to work on a public holiday shall be paid their ordinary rate of pay for that day.
- 12.4. Employees working on public holidays as part of their normal work roster other than Good Friday and Christmas shall be paid 200% for hours worked in addition to the ordinary hourly rate with a minimum of 4 hours. This rate shall substitute for any shift or week end allowances.
- 12.5. Employees working on Christmas Day or Good Friday shall be paid 300% for hours worked in addition to the ordinary hourly rate with a minimum of 4 hours. This rate shall substitute for any shift or week end allowances.
- 12.6. Where a full time employee who is entitled to a Rostered Day Off (RDO) and such RDO falls on a public holiday, the employee, with the mutual agreement between the Company and the employee may elect to :-
 - (a) Take an alternate day in lieu.
 - (b) Have one day added to annual leave
- 12.7. An employee absent without leave on the day before or the day after any holiday shall forfeit payment for such holiday except where the Company is satisfied by a medical certificate as to the employee's inability to attend for work. Provided an employee absent on one day only either before or after a group of holidays shall forfeit wages for only one holiday.
- 12.8. The Picnic Day is not to be considered a closed day for the industry. Those full time employees who are employed as at the 23rd October with the mutual agreement between the Company and the employee may elect to:-
 - (a) Have one day added to annual leave.
 - (b) Take an alternative day in lieu.
- 12.9. Part-time employees who are employed as at the 23rd October will be paid for the Picnic Day on a pro-rata basis.
13. ANNUAL LEAVE
- 13.1. See Annual Holidays Act, 1944.
- 13.2. An employee at the time of commencing annual leave, in accordance with the said Act, shall be entitled to an additional payment in respect of the period of employment to which the said leave is referable of 25%, calculated on the ordinary weekly time rate of pay and shall include any shift allowances but shall not include commissions, bonuses, incentive payments, overtime rates or any other payments prescribed by this agreement.

13.3. The loading prescribed herein shall be paid on termination of employment where the annual leave which has become due to the employee is outstanding at the time of termination.

13.4. The provisions of clause 13.3 shall not apply where an employee is dismissed for misconduct nor shall it apply to pro rata holiday pay paid on termination of employment.

14. LONG SERVICE

See Long Service Leave Act 1955.

15. SICK LEAVE

15.1. An employee who after not less than 3 months continuous service with the Company, is unable to attend for duty during their ordinary working hours by reason of personal illness or incapacity, including incapacity resulting from injury within the Workers' Compensation Act 1987, not due to their own serious and wilful misconduct, shall be entitled to be paid at ordinary time rates of pay for the time of such non-attendances. Provided, that once an employee has had three months continuous service with the Company they shall be paid for the time of such non-attendance during the first 3 months. Provided however, that they shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence for any period in respect of which they are entitled to workers' compensation.

15.2. The employee shall prior to the commencement of such absence or as soon as possible, inform the Company of their inability to attend for duty and as far as possible, state the nature of injury or illness and the estimated duration of the incapacity.

15.3. The employee shall not be entitled to payment unless the employee provides proof, satisfactory to the Company, that the employee was unable on account of such illness to attend for duty on the day or days for which payment under this clause is claimed.

15.4. The employee shall not be entitled to sick leave in excess of the following:-

In the first year 44 hours

In the second year and up to and including the fourth year of employment - 60 hours

In the fifth year and thereafter - 72 hours

The rights under this clause accumulate from year to year so that any part of a week which has not been allowed in any year, may, subject to the conditions prescribed by this clause, be claimed by the employee and shall be allowed by the Company in a subsequent year of employment.

- 15.5. An employee who is absent without leave on the working day before or after a rostered day off shall be liable to forfeit wages for the working day except where the employee produces medical evidence that is satisfactory to the Company, to the extent that their absence was caused through personal illness or injury.
 - 15.6. No employee shall be retired on the grounds of ill health until their accumulated sick leave credits have been exhausted or unless the cash value of the accumulated sick leave credit has been paid to the employee on termination of employment.
 - 15.7. Entitlements within this clause do not extend to an employee on their rostered days off.
 - 15.8. Employees under this agreement shall in any year of employment be allowed the first 2 separate single days absence on account of personal illness or injury without production of proof of such illness or injury.
 - 15.9. All other sick leave shall be subject to proof as provided in sub clause 15.3.
 - 15.10. All employees shall when returning to work after an absence, report to their respective supervisor and where necessary inform the supervisor of the reason for the absence.
 - 15.11. Provided that where a Company has reasonable proof to suspect that an employee has abused their entitlements under this sub-clause the Company and the Union shall investigate and discuss the matter.
16. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE
- 16.1. An employee on the death of a wife, husband, father, mother, brother, sister, child, step child, mother in law, father in law, foster parent, grandparent or grandchild will be entitled on notice to leave, including the day of the funeral of such relation, and such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in 3 ordinary days work. In the case of attendance of a funeral of such relation outside Australia such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in 5 ordinary days work. Proof of such death shall be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the Company if so requested, together with proof of attendance in the case of a funeral outside Australia.
 - 16.2. Where the death of a named relative herein occurs outside Australia and the employee does not attend the funeral, the employee shall be entitled to one day only, unless they can demonstrate to the Company that additional time up to a period of three days was justified.
 - 16.3. Provided that this clause shall have no operation while the period of entitlement to leave under it coincides with any other period of entitlement to leave.

- 16.4. For the purpose of this clause, the words "wife" and "husband" shall not include a wife or husband from whom the employee is legally separated but shall include a person who lives with the employee as a de facto wife or husband.
- 16.5. Entitlements under this clause do not extend to an employee on their rostered day off.
17. WORKERS COMPENSATION
See Workers Compensation Act, 1987
18. PARENTAL LEAVE
See Parental Leave Provisions of the Industrial Relations Act, 1991.
19. JURY SERVICE
 - 19.1. An employee shall be allowed leave of absence during any period when required to attend for jury service. During such leave of absence, an employee shall be paid the difference between the jury service fees received and the employee's ordinary rate of pay as if working.
 - 19.2. An employee shall be required to produce to the Company proof of jury service fees received and proof of requirement to attend and attendance on jury service and shall give the Company notice of such requirements as soon as practicable after receiving notification to attend for jury service.
 - 19.3 Entitlements under this clause do not apply to an employee on a rostered day off.
20. FARES AND TRAVELLING TIME
Employees temporarily transferred shall be reimbursed any extra fares or expenses involved together with payment for all extra time spent travelling.
21. TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT
 - 21.1. Employment shall be on a weekly basis except casuals who shall be on an hourly basis.
 - 21.2. Employment of full-time, part-time and casual employees during the first 3 months of service shall be probationary and from day to day at the weekly rate, terminable by a day's notice on either side but the Company shall indicate clearly to an employee at the time of engagement whether the employee is being engaged as a casual employee or as a full-time or part-time employee.
 - 21.3. Formal Counselling Procedure
Employees other than probationary employees will be subject to a formal counselling procedure before termination can take place. The procedure being:-

- (a) First Counselling - explaining reasons for the Counselling with a Union Delegate present if so requested by the employee.
- (b) Second Counselling - explaining reasons for the Counselling with a Union Delegate present if so requested by the employee.
- (c) Dismissal - explaining reasons for Dismissal with a Union Delegate present if so requested by the employee.
- (d) Written details will be kept of all meetings.
- (e) A copy of the written details referred to in sub-clause (d) above will be forwarded to the employee and the Secretary of the Union in respect of employees who are members of the Union.
- (f) The Company will, if requested to by the Union, discuss with the Union the length of time the Company regards the warning as being current for the purposes of the first and second steps of the procedure referred to above.
- (g) In the case of misconduct justifying instant dismissal, an employee may be instantly dismissed.

22. SUPERANNUATION

See The Storemen and Packers - Grocery and Variety Warehouse (State) Superannuation Award 1990, published 22 February 1991 (261 1.G.426).

23. FIRST AID

- 23.1. See Occupational Health & Safety Act 1983.
- 23.2. A qualified first aid attendant who is appointed to carry out the duties of a qualified first aid attendant shall be paid $12.85 per week as at the date of the agreement in addition to the appropriate rate. This allowance will be indexed with future wage increases.
- 23.3. When a relief qualified first aid attendant is required to be appointed under the Act they shall be paid the said additional allowance whilst engaged on such relief on a pro rata basis.

24. DIRTY WORK

- 24.1. An employee engaged in the physical duties deemed to be of an unusually dirty or offensive nature, shall be paid a dirty work allowance of 31 cents per hour for each hour so employed, to a maximum of 5 hours per day during normal rostered shifts.
- 24.2. This special rate is a flat payment and shall not be taken into account when calculating any other payments to which the employee may be entitled.
- 24.3. This special rate will be indexed with future wage increases.

25. ATTENDANCE AT REPATRIATION CENTRES

- 25.1. Employees being ex-service personnel, shall be allowed as time worked, lost time incurred whilst attending repatriation centres for medical examination and/or treatment; provided that:-
- (a) Such lost time does not exceed 4 hours on each occasion.
 - (b) Payment shall be limited to the difference between ordinary wage rates for time lost and any payment received from the Repatriation Department as a result of each such visit.
 - (c) The employee produces satisfactory evidence to the Company that the employee is so required to and subsequently does attend a repatriation centre.
- 25.2. Entitlements under this clause do not extend to an employee on a rostered day off.

26. GENERAL CONDITIONS

- 26.1. Each employee on the termination of employment, shall on request, be given a statement, in writing, stating the position held by the employee and length of service.
- 26.2. Employees shall be provided with reasonable dining accommodation, locker change rooms, adequate washing and toilet facilities and a plentiful supply of hot water and refrigerated water for drinking.
- 26.3. Adequate waterproof clothing shall be supplied to all employees working in the rain.

27. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

- 27.1. Any dispute arising out of employment shall be referred by the Union Delegate to the Company's Representatives appointed for this purpose.
- 27.2. Failing settlement at this level between the Company and the Union Delegate on the job, the Union Delegate shall refer the dispute within 24 hours to the Union Organiser who will take the matter up with the Company.
- 27.3. All efforts shall be made by the Company and the Union Organiser to settle the matter but failing settlement, the Union Organiser shall refer the dispute to the Union Secretary and the Company shall refer the dispute to the Retail Traders Association of New South Wales (R.T.A.) and the Union Secretary shall take the matter up with the R.T.A.
- 27.4. During the discussions the status quo shall remain and work shall proceed normally. "Status quo" shall mean the situation existing immediately prior to the dispute or the matter giving rise to the dispute.
- 27.5. At any time either party shall have the right to notify the dispute to the Industrial Registrar.

28. UNION DELEGATES

Where an employee is elected as a Union Delegate by fellow employees and the Union notifies the Company the Union Delegate shall be allowed by the Company, such time as is necessary to interview the employee or Company Representatives on matters affecting the employees represented.

29. RIGHT OF ENTRY

See Industrial Relations Act, 1991, Chapter 8 Part 1 (Right of Entry of Officer of Industrial Organisation of Employees) or any legislation replacing that provision.

30. NO EXTRA CLAIMS

It is a term of this agreement that each party undertake for the duration of the agreement not to pursue any extra claims unless in accordance with the State Wage Case. Each party recognises that the wages as expressed incorporate payments due under the Minimum Rates Principle.

31. FLEXIBILITY

- 31.1. The Company may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training.
- 31.2. Employees shall take all reasonable steps to achieve quality, accuracy and completion of any job or task assigned to the employee.
- 31.3. Employees shall not impose any restrictions or limitations on a reasonable review of work methods. All reviews carried out by the Company will take into account the potential impact on occupational health and safety.

32. MIXED FUNCTIONS

- 32.1. An employee employed for two hours or more per day or ten hours or more per week, for work other than on which the employee regularly is employed and for which a higher rate of pay is provided for, herein shall receive such higher rate of pay for the whole day or the whole week as the case may be, while so employed. If employed for less than two hours on any day they shall receive such higher rate of pay while so employed.
- 32.2. No employee shall suffer any reduction in wages if temporarily employed on work other than that on which the employee regularly is employed and for which a lower rate of pay is provided for herein.

This Agreement was not entered into under duress.
