32. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

The parties to the Agreement shall observe the following Disciplinary Procedure:-

Disciplinary Procedure - Relating to Poor Work Performance or Unsatisfactory Conduct

Without limiting the scope of application of this procedure "poor work performance or unsatisfactory conduct" it shall include the following:-

- * Unacceptable work quality
- * Unsafe work practices
- * Wilfully failing to abide by reasonable and lawful directions.
- * Excessive absenteeism
- * Abuse of sick leave entitlement

Where it is alleged an employee's work performance or conduct is of a poor or unsatisfactory standard the following procedure may be adopted:-

1) Interview Process

An interview of the employee should be conducted by the Company's representative. It is appropriate for another member of management to be present as well as a nominated or responsible employee acceptable to the employee being disciplined if requested by the employee or the Company. The employee's witness may be the site Union delegate if the employee is a member of a union. At the time of the interview the employee should be informed of the nature of the problem and be given the opportunity to explain his/her actions.

It is suggested that certain details of the interview be recorded, such as:-

1. Nature of alleged poor work performance or unsatisfactory conduct and the specific details.
2. Date/s of alleged poor work performance or unsatisfactory conduct.
3. The employee's responses to the allegations.
4. Date and time of the interview.

A copy of this record should be supplied to the employee concerned.

Bush's Pet Foods (Production) Enterprise Agreement 2000

2) Discipline

If the warning resulting from the initial interview is unsuccessful a further interview similarly constituted should then take place.

At that time management should produce further evidence of the continued poor work performance or unsatisfactory conduct and the employee should be given the opportunity to explain his/her continued poor work performance or unsatisfactory conduct.

If the explanation is deemed unsatisfactory management may take disciplinary action in relation to the employee.

Such disciplinary action may result in dismissal, however, in some circumstances it would be appropriate that a further warning be given.

However in some less serious situations appropriate disciplinary measures may include:-

- * Relocation in the work place;
- * Admonishments recorded on the employee's personal file.

These forms of disciplinary measures by either permanent or of a temporary nature, in which case previous entitlements may then be restored provided the employee's work performance or conduct has improved in the intervening period.

The employee may nonetheless be dismissed if any of the alternative disciplinary measures are found not to be a satisfactory solution.

3) Dismissal

(a) Dismissal Following Disciplinary Procedure

The employee should be notified in writing of the dismissal and the reasons for same. The Union delegate (if the employee is a member of a Union) should be notified as soon as practicable if this course of action is to be taken.

(b) Instant Dismissal

The above procedures dealing with poor work performance or unsatisfactory conduct and are not intended to interfere with the right of the employer to dismiss any employee without notice for serious and wilful misconduct that justifies instant dismissal.

In such circumstances the following procedure should be followed:-

- (i) An investigation should be conducted to establish the facts.
- (ii) The employee shall be interviewed in the presence of another member of Management and be informed of the alleged misconduct.
- (iii) The employee shall be given the opportunity to explain or refute the alleged misconduct.
